PASTOR'S CORNER

Open heart and mind to God's Word

In his recent editorial titled, Intellectuals and Society - Pt. II, Thomas Sowell makes an insightful observation on the 20th century.

"It may seem strange that so many people of great intellect have said and done so many things whose consequences ranged from counterproductive to catastrophic. Yet it is not so surprising when we consider whether anybody has ever had the range of knowledge required to make the sweeping kinds of decisions that so many intellectuals are prone to make, especially when they pay no price for being wrong." .....
